It is still raining at 9 a. m. Monday morning as I am writing this article for the Bethel Citizen. In this area people don't have to be told of weather conditions here. It is for people living in other states who are interested in what is going on here. The Citizen is read by people from Florida to the west coast.

Greenwood City

Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres.

The world was on the verge of a surprise. It's a breathless moment when you see its brilliance just below the horizon. It was easing to the senses and I thought "There must be a crust." There was, and I knew, if I were to enjoy it I must get out early, I did.

The wind gently murmured, and puffed with feathery softness against my windows.

So after breakfast and the dishes put away I started out. I had no special plan but started up the Bulldozer Road. Going a short way I turned right leaving a road for the woods and the side hill. I first thought that I'd go by the spring and come out down near the cottages. But again I changed my mind for I just could not miss the mountains on such a clear day. So up over the mountain I went to the fields.

Here a pure elastic heaven was over all, as if all impurities of the air had been refined and shrank by winter's cold and had been winnowed away.

I sat on an old stump and looked at the mountains. They were beautiful! Some of their caught the sun and were changing color against the sky. They never were clearer, with air sparkling; each mountain cut sharply.

A chickadee came and perched three feet from my face. I realized that it's a properly ordered world and we should take time to see and feel its strength around us.

I looked at the houses perched against the blue ether and noticed how they put forth a comfortable, settled, homey look.

The sun was climbing higher so I knew I must move on if I intended to go elsewhere.

I went up the mountain as far as the ancient blue-pear-main tree with its gnarled branches. I wonder how it stands with its hollow trunk. Now I turned down the hill.

Around the stone walls the snow patches were still deep and so there was no climbing to cross them.

By a cellar hole pine grosbeaks were swinging merrily in a graceful birch tree their caps lighted up by the sun. They were very busy about their own affairs and my passing bothered them not at all.

I crossed the orchard, crossed the road, and crossed the pond.

Sunshine was pinking the smoke from a chimney down the valley.

I turned left to the field of pines and a visit to "my" tamarack. Among the tree tops were flocks of birds, red poles, and a partridge thundered away. On the side of the open space through which I passed grew the young pines. They hung dark and green while they gave forth a dreamy, almost purring sound.

I then pushed through the alders to the pond once more.

The cattail reeds were still standing rank, with the muskrat house among them hard as ice.

I could feel spring in the air. There was a warm touch in the sun on my cheeks, and I could hear the exquisite notes of the chickadees spring song floating like a silk thread through the stillness.

I lifted my eyes to the hills where I had so recently been then looked down the valley.

I followed the shore line hoping to climb the highest point on the pond's edge. But I had waited too long or the crust wasn't as strong as in the open.

I looked up toward the point to a bleached remains of a leaning tree. Its white trunk and few storm-shot limbs suggested a prehistoric skeleton ready to plunge. Woods and shore line had relapsed into a doze.

A plane climbed high the full length of the sky leaving its scribble behind.

Then from the forest stole a balsam scent.

I had a jubilant feeling that I was on my way out of the hand of winter to the time of lilacs and blossoms and soft caressing winds. The March wind could howl as Roswell Allen took Hazel Allen, his mother, for tests at the Bridgton Hospital Friday.

Iva Fox had dinner with her sister Pauline Smith, Friday, later calling on her son, Albert Fox and family.

Callers at Hazel Allen's this week: Ruth Fox, Clyde Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Erlend Allen. Vesta Nelson visited at Iva Fox.

Cousin Vesta Nelson came for us for lunch. Mother Marion Kendall and myself, Pauline Smith. We later attended Nellie McAllister's service. It was a large service, showed Nellie was a friend to many, a great lady.

Dot Bell took me, Pauline, to the dentist in Bridgton. Mother stayed with Iva for the day. As I had time before going, I called on Mrs. Irma Kimball, a neighbor for 21 years when I lived in the village, Earl and Charlotte Smith, a neighbor, also Mrs. Louise Brook, who had just lost her husband. Quite a day. As I often said, nothing like a good friend or neighbor.

Linda, Neal Allen visited Linda's mother on Easter day. Also Albert Fox.

It seems to me we had an outstanding Easter service 10:30 at the United Church of Christ. Beautiful music and a very fine sermon by Rev. Richard Barr. Many beautiful potted plants, including Easter Lilies. Some were given in memory of Hazel McKee by her husband, John McKee.

Thirty four attended the Easter sunrise service at 5:30 at Mell Jackson's on Lake Kezar. Later the Jacksons served lunch.

Clarice Gibson, Corres.

Our first week of spring and Easter have gone by. Neither proved very good weather wise. Tuesday was a very slippery morning—quite a few accidents. I hope that if anyone had bought clothes for Easter they were heavy as about 10 it started snowing and we must have had between four to six inches before it stopped sometime in the night. Monday, rain, rain and more rain. Wilfred (our son) and I went to Littleton, N. H., any how as Wilfred needed a part for his motorcycle. He intended to drive for South Carolina Tuesday. He did leave this morning before seven.

We have had a busy week (or at least for me). The 18th I picked up my father George Allen in Norway and we went to Portland to pick up Wilfred. I had tried to tell him that we had a lot of snow and he should try to wait before coming up to get his bike; but being in South Carolina he could not believe how much. Monday and Tuesday he spent trying to figure out what he needed for parts before going after them. Wednesday we went to Lewiston for parts (the place had gone out of business) and were told of a place in Jay. We went but as they were quite new they didn't have what we wanted. We stopped at a McDonald's for lunch and then headed for Littleton, N. H. The next day Wilfred had to get the bike licensed and inspected and stayed at his grandparents overnight. Pat Saunders took Thelma Merrill and I to our classes at Telstar Thursday in the car they had just traded for. On the way home from his grandparents Friday Wilfred broke a cable on his bike which is why we had to go back to Littleton, N. H., Monday. Ira and Wilfred went to Rumford to eat and the show Saturday evening and for Sunday dinner we had my parents Mr. and Mrs. George Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Don Holden and Pearl, all from Norway.

Sue Laban and Jody and Gerry Shimamura are or have been on the sick list this past week.

The 27th was Robert Stearns' birthday and his wife had as birthday guests, his aunt, Vivian Barlow, East Andover, and daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Seames and Dawn.

The Seames also had Sunday dinner with her parents, the 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Angevine had Sunday dinner with their son and family, the Dick Angevines.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hannon and daughters stayed Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Murphy and son, Dwan.

WEST BETHEL CHILDREN'S CENTER
 The children are enjoying many different activities this week, such as: painting at the easel, playing at the table, making silhouettes, weather games and a game called Candy Land. Our proud Star of the Week is Aaron Billings. There are two kindergarten registration dates coming up. One is Monday, April 2, at the Bethel Congregational Church, 9 o'clock in the morning. The other is Wednesday, April 5, at the Woodstock Elementary Gym, 9 o'clock in the morning. Friday, March 31, all of the teachers are going to a workshop to learn how to help children with speech problems. Volunteers will be with the children.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
 To the Editor:
 The Community Food Nutrition Center will sponsor a Cheese Festival on Saturday, April 1, at the Moses Mason House. We urge everyone to attend and to offer their support to the Co-op Store front which will open soon in Bethel. This store will enable people to eat higher quality and more healthful foods without chemical contaminants. So many of us appreciate all the time and energy that Brooks Morton and others have spent on this extremely worthwhile project. We thank you.

CRAFT, HOBBY AND HOME SEWING AIDS AT BETHEL LIBRARY

The Bethel Library has many things to offer to help with your crafts and sewing, and give you new ideas. It has the 24 volume Family Creative Workshop which covers everything from working with acrylics to making zootrope toys. There are books on how to tat and do macrame, on needlepoint and crewel work, weaving and quilt making. If you want to decorate your home with things you've made yourself there are books to show you how to braid or hook rugs, and upholster furniture, even books on furniture building and refinishing ("Early American Furniture Making" and "The Furniture Doctor"). Then, with ideas on how to put it all together, "Better Homes and Gardens Decorating Book" and "The Complete Basic Book of Home Decorating."

Hobby books include several on bottle collecting, working with leather, silk screening, stamp catalogues and for the aspiring magician, "Dumming's Complete Encyclopedia of Magic." For the seamstress there is a large selection of patterns for children sizes 1/2 to 12, misses 28 to 40 and some half sizes, and a few more. There are also needlework magazines with crocheting and knitting directions and patterns, and ideas for applique and patchwork designs. Come into the library and look over the selection of craft, hobby and sewing books and magazines. If you don't see what you want just ask and they'll try to find it for you.

TELSTAR'S FIRST SHOOT-ATHON A SUCCESS

On March 18, Telstar girls and boys who played basketball on the Middle School and High School teams participated in their first shoot-athon. Each participant took 10 shots receiving pledges for each shot made. In the Middle School trophies were given to the Most Improved, Bobby Myers received a trophy for most shots made 31-50, for 62%. Rocky Myers made the most money in the Middle School and overall for an individual $261.30. In the High School Ernie Watkinson was the show-shooting 41-60 for 82%, and making the most money for an individual in the High School $207.87. The grand total made was $1,025.48. This money will be used to put out outdoor basketball hoops throughout the district or as far as the money goes. In the near future there will be a meeting with the Buildings and Grounds Committee of S. A. D. #44 to determine possible sites. Many thanks to the public for supporting this function.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST A Child Comes Home

What happiness there is when Mother carries into the house her newborn baby!—Dad proudly helps as the child is introduced to the family—crib and blankets are ready as the newcomer arrives. His food is milk which he eagerly takes—then nap time and rest—so with loving care he is tucked in and the youngster already feels tenderness and trust. All is well; gradually the babe grows as scales and ruler record his development—gradually too, his diet changes to a more solid food, even meat, and maturing he grows strong and healthy.

That's how it is with a new Christian (of any age) newly born into the family of God. "Born Again" as Jesus says in John 3:7 "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." Being reconciled to God, we see in II Corinthians 5:17 "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

Being welcomed into fellowship with Christians is an earthly and heavenly experience as Jesus says in Luke 15:10 "Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth." As the Word and example—with worship and praise to our heavenly Father. A believer finds his hunger for God gets greater and his desire to learn more of the Bible gets greater—he wants to attend Sunday morning and evening services, Bible studies and prayer meetings whenever possible; all to develop his senses to discern between good and evil.

All for the glory and majesty of our Lord and Saviour.

should run out and buy a big bottle of vitamin A. As stated above photophobia can be a sign of deficiency and these should be determined by your doctor.

Questions on chiropractic, vitamins, natural remedies, etc., should be sent to Dr. Garbarini, Paradise Road in Bethel.

DR. GARBARINI'S QUESTION AND ANSWER

Question: Dear Dr. Garbarini—This bright winter sun makes my eyes hurt very much. Is it true I may not be getting enough vitamin A? — M. C., Locke Mills.

Answer: Sensitivity to sun light or photophobia as it is correctly termed, can be due to many conditions including irritation to the eye itself, or an increased sensitivity of the nervous system, although one of the most common causes is a vitamin A deficiency. According to Professor Jean Mayer of Harvard University—"Insufficient vitamin A intake is one of the leading causes of blindness in the United States."

The most specific effects of a vitamin A deficiency on the eye are manifested by photophobia, night blindness (or the inability to see well in dim light, and a drying of the eye due to decreased tear production which leads to ulceration and bacterial invasion. Vitamin A is necessary for the formation of visual purple (a substance in the eye that enables it to adjust from bright light to darkness).

This does not mean that you What's new in Bethel? The Where House, that's what! adv.

GOVERNATORIAL CANDIDATE TOURS BETHEL MONDAY

Local Representative Karen Brown was taking House Republican leader and gubernatorial aspirant Linwood E. Palmer around Bethel Monday as Palmer began campaigning full time for the first time since the Legislative session ended.

Karen, who recently endorsed Palmer's candidacy, had Palmer on the road early, visiting with area residents at work in local mills and shops along the main street.

"Linwood grew up in a small Maine town," Karen said, "and he's very obviously enjoying himself as he travels around Bethel. One of the reasons I am working hard for him is this ability he has to talk and relate with Maine people; he has a proven record of accomplishment as a business executive and a legislative leader, and yet he has not forgotten his roots—He's a man of Maine, who listens and who understands when people talk about the need for more and better paying jobs, for more local control of town affairs, for less state regulation of our lives, for better roads."

Palmer spoke highly of Karen's performance as a legislator. "Karen arrived at the State House early and stayed late," said Palmer. "She worked hard during the first term at staying in touch with the people in her district, to listen to their thoughts on the issues and to keep them informed as to what was going on in Augusta. I know that I speak for my colleagues in both parties when I say that Karen has won the respect and admiration of everyone she worked with, so hard these last two years," Palmer said.

Palmer, who announced his candidacy for governor four months ago, is a native of Nobleboro. He first served in Maine Legislature in the late 1940's and early 1950's. At that time, he served two terms in the House, one as the Assistant Majority Floor Leader and one term in the Maine Senate. He then left politics to pursue a business career.

Palmer was reelected to the Maine House in 1972 and has just completed his third consecutive term, his second as Republican Floor Leader. He lives with his wife "Bunny" in Nobleboro and operates a tree-farm. They have three children, Linwood, Gartha and Beth and two grandchildren.

PURITY CHAPTER TO MEET

A regular state meeting of Purity Chapter #102, O. E. S., will be held Wednesday, April 5, at 7:30 p. m., at the Bethel Masonic Hall. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

ly, the same thing is developing in Maine: the "Out to Lunch" Coop-based in Bethel has been in operation two years and now the time has come to expand the concept. The man organizing that expansion is Brooks Morton.

The idea is to establish a small store, which will at first carry such things as grains, dried fruits, nuts, oils, honey, and molasses—in other words, things that will keep. Later, it will be possible to carry produce, but a certain amount of capital is needed for coolers. Initially, the store will be in an apartment next to the Town Office; eventually it is hoped to acquire a more permanent home.

In order to provide leadership, guidance and organization one person will be paid as manager in cooperation with Oxford County Community Services. After one year, it should be possible to have the running of the coop to the members themselves, and so no manager will be necessary. The organization formed will be licensed, registered with the state as a non-profit organization. The store will meet all necessary health requirements.

But the key to the whole thing is people. No coop can work unless individuals are prepared to invest a little time and energy. In particular, people will be needed to serve in the store when it is open—and hopefully it will be open—operation May 1. Help will be needed in collecting and sorting food. In return for a little work (and, obviously, the more people who help, the less work any one individual does) those people will receive good food at a low cost. People who do not work—members or otherwise—will pay a little more. In order to provide working capital to build up a stock of food, there will be a one time fee of $25. The name will be the Bethel Community Food and Nutrition Center.

In order to get the whole thing off the ground, Brooks Morton is organizing a cheese fair at the Moses Mason House on April 1 at 10 o'clock to 5 o'clock. If you are willing to help at the fair, or if you are interested in the coop, or maybe simply if you are still reading this, call Brooks Morton at 824-2939.

NOTES FROM THE LIONS DEN

The Bethel Lions Club has been quite busy during the month of March. The Light Bulb Sale is going very well, thanks to the fine support given by the community.

During the month, various members of the Bethel Lions Club have visited 10 Lions Clubs throughout the District. The clubs visited were: Yarmouth, Lewiston, Mechanic Falls, Falmouth, Cumberland, North Yarmouth, Portland, Freeport, Windham, Denmark, Gray, New Gloucester and Westbrook.

Visiting other clubs is a fine way to gather new ideas on fund-raising and community service projects as well as fostering good fellowship in Lionsism.

On Saturday March 25, members of the Bethel Club and ladies attended the 50th Anniversary celebration of the South Portland Lions Club. In recognition of the excellent record of community service, they have provided over the years. King Lion Eldon Greenleaf on behalf of the Bethel Lions Club, presented to their President a suitably inscribed Paul Revere Bowl.

Now that spring cleaning time is upon us don't forget that the Lions Club is collecting used or unwanted eyeglasses, cases and hearing aids for repair and distribution to those people who cannot get the proper eye care.

We are happy to welcome Jim Monahan to our membership as of March. Jim lives in Gilead and was sponsored by Malcolm Gould.

Plans are progressing very well for Mollycoddle Day. Members will be soliciting ads for the program booklet in the near future.

At the last Directors meeting the club decided to offer two scholarships this year to students residing in S.A.D. 44. Details will be published later.

Events coming up, the Bethel Lions Club will be participating in the Lion Social at the Town and Country on April 15, the District 41-L Awards Banquet meeting in Scarborough on April 30, and the Multiple District 41 Convention in Portland on May 21-23.

Your community minded Lions Club will continue to serve the Bethel Area in as many ways as possible.

MRS. BARKER HOSTS ELEANOR GORDON GUILD

Mrs. Judy Barker hosted a meeting of the Eleanor Gordon Guild at her home on Wednesday evening, March 22, with eight members, one new member and a guest present. Devotions were led by Mrs. Mary Doe.

The food basket to benefit the Leukemia Foundation is still being circulated. The May Mother-Daughter Banquet was discussed and plans will be finalized at the April meeting.

Mrs. Barker demonstrated the making of pine cone wreaths and centerpieces and each member worked on a hanging decoration made with cones and discarded phonograph records. Mrs. Neva Coolidge assisted the hostess with serving refreshments.

The group will meet next at the home of Mrs. Betty Perkins on April 19.

Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres.

The Gilles Viens family spent Easter week end in Canada.

The snowmobile traffic was extra heavy over the week end.

We got several inches of snow Easter Sunday and Monday followed by rain.

A large beautiful rainbow appeared in the northeastern sky Monday afternoon.

It seems incredible to me that the courts could entertain the idea of not allowing flags at half mast to pay respect to Jesus on the calculated anniversary of His death. His birth, life and crucifixion is a historical fact according to my information and he was an outstanding person making a great imprint through nearly 2,000 years. To fly a flag at half mast does not denote worship nor religion. Many non Christians have great respect for the man Jesus. If the flag were flown at "double-mast" or in some manner to express an exultation concerning resurrection on the Sabbath, there could be a bit of foundation for the to-do.

GILEAD WOMEN MEET

The Gilead Women's Club met on Tuesday, March 21, at the home of Lin Chapman. A short business meeting was held and it was decided to attempt an Easter Egg Hunt for Gilead children up to age 10 years. The committee, Lise McLain, Bev Coriveau, Georgia McArthur and Nancy Coriveau were to make the final arrangements.

The meeting then adjourned and an extension meeting followed with Stephanie Knight, of the Oxford County Extension Office, giving many tips on sewing and using the sewing machine. Stephanie also showed how to alter a slacks pattern, how to get one's exact measurements and to adjust patterns. Also given were some very helpful booklets on making well fitting dresses and pants. The Women's Club would like to thank Stephanie for attending the meeting. These many tips will make sewing much easier!

The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 18, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Freda Gaudreau, Bog Road, Gilead. This will be followed by an extension meeting with Bev Coriveau demonstrating liquid embroidery.

East Stoneham

—Gladys Kilgore, Corres.—
Easter services were held at the church Sunday, after being held at the town hall through the winter months. The Easter lilies were lovely, reminding us that spring is near. Our pastor, Mr. Parent, had a nice sermon for us all. After the service a nice lunch of coffee and doughnuts was served in the church vestry.

Several from here attended the funeral of Roland Grant at Norway, Monday.

Mrs. Sylvia Cummings took four of us ladies to Bridgton Wednesday to Dr. Sidel's for glasses. On our way home we called on an elderly lady, Mrs. Abbie Lange, who makes her home with her niece, Ruth Clark. She had a lovely Easter egg tree with over one hundred decorated eggs on it. They were all different. Every year she adds a few more. We had a pleasant call, and we all enjoyed the tree.

I am all snowed in again. My three gray squirrels haven't been here today and I miss them.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Grover, his mother and his son, Read, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gouin and family in Norway Sunday.

Mrs. Ethel Files had her son, John Files Jr., and his two sons

Beware of Restrictions
The courts permit property owners to put in deeds to buyers reasonable restrictions on the use of the real estate being transferred. It might be looked upon as zoning on a personal basis.

For example, a home in a commercially zoned area may have a restriction against use for any commercial purpose. This may be OK for the first buyer who plans to live in the house, but a lending institution may refuse to loan any money on it because commercial use may be the only reason for a new purchaser to buy it. They prefer to play it safe and give funds for less questionable and risky situations.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at EARLY REAL ESTATE, 60 Main St. Bethel. Phone: 824-2122, 824-2579. We're here to help!

DISTRICT #44 SPELLING BEE
HELD MARCH 16

On Thursday, March 16, the District Spelling Bee was held in the Telstar Auditorium to determine who would represent M. S. A. D. #44 in the upcoming Oxford County Spelling Bee. Miss Helen Varner was the Bee Mistress for the assembly, a task she has willingly performed for many years. The three judges, teachers from Telstar, were Mrs. Helen Berry, Ms. Marjorie Howell and Rodney Abbott. This was a Telstar Middle School Assembly with the sixth grades from Andover and Woodstock attending.

Lesli Olson

This year the procedure of the spell-down was altered to provide more competition. Each of the grade levels was represented by five contestants, bringing the total to 15. These 15 contestants had been chosen through individual English class spelling bees held earlier in March. Representing the sixth grade were Andy Wheeler, Karl Barth, Gerri Gauthier, all from Telstar; Deanne Bodemer from Andover, and Tammy Wilson from Woodstock. The seventh grade was represented by Marcia Barker, Lesli Olson, Bill Mason, Sheila Blake and Mike Otero-Otero. The five spellers from the eighth grade were Sharon Daye, Ronnie Lizotte, Chris McElmurry, John Schachter and Vernon Seguin.

It must be remembered that each speller only has one chance to spell the word, and he cannot change any part that has already been spoken. It becomes a test of nerves as well as spelling ability. While all spellers did admirably well, the winner was a seventh grader, Lesli Olson. Lesli is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Olson of Bethel. The runner up and alternate for the county spelling bee was Chris McElmurry of the eighth grade. Chris is the son of Mrs. Dianne Cutting of Andover.

Lesli will be attending the Oxford County Spelling Bee on April 7 at 2 p. m. at the Rumford Junior High Auditorium.

Don't be fooled April 1st. The Where House prices are for real adv.

STATE OF MAINE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Karen L. Brown

In the final hours before adjournment the Maine Legislature approved a $19.8 million tax cut package after long hours of negotiation. It began when the Governor estimated that the state would have a $41 million surplus when the books close June 30, 1979, and recommended that about half the money be returned to those who pay it. After several weeks of compromising with the Governor, Republican and Democrat Leadership from the House and Senate, a tax relief program was passed and the Governor signed it on Wednesday.

The package provides $4 million in income tax cuts, primarily to middle income taxpayers. Maine residents will no longer pay the 5% sales tax on the first 750 kilowatt hours of electricity they use or on water bills, or on gas used in heating or cooking.

Fishermen, loggers and farmers will not have to pay the sales tax on equipment used in their trade.

Businesses would also benefit from the measure. Corporations receive a 1% break on income taxes. In addition, they would receive a tax credit for new jobs created this year. The amount of credit will depend on the number of jobs established throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wentzell and daughter, Mollie, of Ogunquit, spent the week with Mrs. Norma Jordrey.

Jon Walker, East Lansing, Mich., has been spending a few days from his classes at Michigan State University visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker, Sudbury Village, Bethel.

(Bethel Emergency Ambulance & Rescue Service)

Don Morin and Rita Sweetser attended a meeting of the Volunteer Ambulance Association in Portland Tuesday night. These meetings are to help solve problems all rescue units are faced with. Nine different units were represented at this month's meeting.

The Advanced First Aid Class on Tuesday night at Telstar is nearly finished. Some of the students have already been faced with real situations in which they have used the skills and knowledge they have learned.

In the near future the BEARS will be having a work-training night. The project will be to make several more back-boards. We need several as we use them for training aids in first aid classes as well as carry them in the ambulance.

There are two standard first aid classes in session. On Tuesday nights at Crescent Park School with Bud Howe, instructor, and on Wednesday nights at Telstar with Arlene Greenleaf, instructor.

The snow is slowly going. The snow banks have acted as cushioning agents along the roads all winter. Soon they will be gone, and rocks, trees, bridges and steep banks will be exposed to drivers who somehow find they're way off the road. DRIVE SAFELY AND DEFENSIVELY.
